Revolutionary War French Cartridge Pouch ...#Bag-US-1767

This cartridge box is ideal for an American impression using a French Charleville musket.

This "Lafayette's" cartridge box is a French 1767 design. The cartridge box is made from heavy black leather, measuring about 9" wide, 6" tall, and 3" deep. The bottom has two iron buckles mounted to secure a shoulder strap, sold separately.

Inside is a tinned tray, and a wooden block with 3/4" holes for six cartridges and two rectangular cavities. A small thin leather pouch with tie is located on the front of the box, under the main flap, for flints. Strap sold separate, 2-3/16" wide by 72" long, black leather.

Rawle's Patent 1777 Cartridge Pouch..... #Bag-Rawl-1777

This British cartridge pouch design was patented by William Rawle. It measures 8-3/4" wide, 6-1/2" tall, and 3" deep.

The cartridge pouch is made from heavy black leather, with a brass stud to secure the flap down. An additional pocket is located beneath the main flap. The bottom has two iron buckles mounted to secure a shoulder strap (sold separately). We recommend our 2" wide 72" shoulder strap to hang this well made cartridge box.

The double sided wooden block holds 36 cartridges, 18 on each side, in 3/4" diameter holes.
